

リスニング

1 (1) You may use this when you are studying. This is used when you want to check the meaning of words.

(2) Kota hasn't finished cleaning his room yet.

2 (1) A: Have you finished your homework yet?

B: No, I haven't. How about you?

A: (I've already finished it.)

(2) A: I'm so excited. I am going to visit Okinawa next week.

B: Sounds fun! Have you ever been there before?

A: (Never. It's my first time.)

(3) A: What did you do last weekend?

B: I climbed Mt. Fuji with my family. It was fun.

A: Oh. How many times have you climbed it?

B: (Three times.)

3 (1) Diane has been to India twice, but David has never been there. He went to Brazil when he was twelve. Bob wants to go to Mexico and Japan.

Question: What country has David been to?

(2) Miki saw the movie last week, and she's going to see it again tomorrow.
Jane has never seen it, but Kate has seen it three times.
Question: How many times has Miki seen the movie?

(3) Ken wants to have lunch. Mike has already had lunch, but John has not had lunch yet. So Ken will have lunch with John.
Question: Who has had lunch?

英文 (1) Diane has been to India twice, but David has never been there. He went to Brazil when he was twelve. Bob wants to go to Mexico and Japan.

Q: What country has David been to?